

Affiliate Maturity Matrix

Effective operating standards help ACE National and its affiliates improve the quality, consistency and continuity of programming and administrative functions throughout all the communities we serve. This set of standards, as reflected in the Maturity Matrix created by ACE National, demonstrates our commitment to excellence and our accountability to our students, schools, mentors, and sponsors.

The Maturity Matrix is a tool that allows affiliates to evaluate themselves against program standards. In addition, ACE National can use the tool to assess ACE's overall operation. Each program standard has four levels of maturity ranging from basic to outstanding performance.

Each category is broken down into four levels of maturity. An affiliate may rank low on the Maturity Matrix (level 1) in some categories and high (level 4) in others. This will help the affiliate learn areas of its operation where improvement is needed.

Affiliate Self-Assessment

The first step is for an affiliate to perform a self-assessment based on the eleven Matrix categories. The affiliate should review the criteria for each category and rate itself accordingly. This will give the affiliate a snapshot of its strengths and weaknesses and identify areas needing future improvement. Not only does the Maturity Matrix give an affiliate a subjective assessment, but it also provides ACE national leadership a comparison of the ACE program across the country.
