

1. What does MEP stand for?
 - a. Mechanical, Engineering, Plumbing
 - b. Machines, Electrical, and Pipes
 - c. Mechanical, Electrical, Plumbing
2. True/False: An MEP Contractor can only work in the field.
3. What do HVAC systems include?
 - a. Heating, Ventilation, Cooling and Air Conditioning
 - b. Overhead and underground lines, poles, and transformers
 - c. Elements that control the water supply, heating, and sanitation of a building
4. What do Refrigeration systems include?
 - a. Elements that control the water supply, heating, and sanitation of a building
 - b. The artificial cooling of space, substance, or system
 - c. Tanks, pipes, and fittings
5. What do plumbing systems include?
 - a. Elements that control the water supply, heating, and sanitation of a building
 - b. Transferring heat around from one area to another
 - c. Ventilation and cooling equipment
6. What do electrical systems include?
 - a. Components the supply, distribute, and use electrical power
 - b. Line and drain pan cleaning
 - c. Filter replacements
7. True/False: MEP contractors do not need to collaborate with other trades to do their jobs.
8. True/False: MEP contractors typically do work in the commercial field.
9. Where might you find the systems that MEP contractors design, build, and/or maintain?
Choose all that apply.
 - a. Offices
 - b. Hospitals
 - c. Amusement Parks
 - d. Single Family Home
 - e. Apartment Complexes
 - f. Schools
10. True/False: MEP Contractors can only work on the construction side.